To be determined

The members of the Waretown Historical Society have accomplished a great deal in our community in the past years.

We have promoted, educated, and shared our heritage with our community.

We look forward to a productive and interesting 2011, as we continue with our goals...

The mission of the Waretown Historical Society is to record events in the order of their happenings in The Township of Ocean.

We hope to preserve all relevant historical and genealogical information, antiques, and artifacts for future generations.

We regularly sponsor educational programs, tours and lectures at our museum.

Our Little Red School House Museum, which was built by community volunteers, is a replica of the old red schoolhouse that was used in town from 1875 - 1958.

Local residents have generously contributed a variety of artifacts for our exhibits and displays that represent all eras of Waretown's history.

We reach out to people of all ages and intellectual levels.

Group Tours are available at any time.
