Women's Life in the Civil War-Although 150 years have passed since the start of the American Civil War, many probing questions are still left. This program investigates the meaning of the Civil War hidden behind the commonplace affairs of its people. In this program, Mary Halasz opens the rusted doors to see what happened in the home front. She will wear period clothes and use various authentic props to bring the 19th century alive. Please register.

Monday, March 12, 7:00 pm

Tin Whistle: Irish Music Concert -Remember the haunting music in the film "Titanic"? Much of its melancholic flavor was due to the simple instrument, the tin whistle. Also known as the penny whistle, this instrument is commonly found in Irish music to the point that it could be called characteristic of the genre. Mr. Bob Koerner has performed for a wide range of audiences from Pennsylvania to Ireland. Join us for a sentimental and stirring evening of Irish music. Please register.

Monday, March 19, 1-4:00 pm

Journey to Wellness-Do mental health and substance abuse issues affect your life? Members from the Journey to Wellness Center will be available in our meeting room to provide confidential support with helpful information and referral services. Just drop in.

Saturday, March 24, 10am-1pm

A Quilt-in-Are you curious about quilting or does a certain pattern or technique have you baffled? Here's your opportunity to boost your understanding of the ancient art of quilting. Members of the Pieceful Shores Quilting Guild will be working on their individual projects and are more than ready to answer any of your inquiries. Just walk right in.

Monday, March 26, 7:00pm

Quilts of New Jersey-Quilting has survived since long before the Crusades and evolved into many styles. New Jersey holds a colorful place in its progression. Mary Archibald, local expert and active member of local guilds, explains the significant hallmarks of quilting history, especially as it pertains to New Jersey. She shares her extensive knowledge gathered from years of sewing and quilting with New Jersey Quakers. Her examples of reproductive and antique quilts will also be on hand. Please register.
